

The Toronto Financial Services Alliance (TFSA) and UK Trade & Investment in Toronto invite you to attend a breakfast event on Islamic Finance.

Tuesday, March 10, 2009
8:00 am – 11:45 am
Ontario Investment and Trade Centre
250 Yonge Street, 35th Floor

- 8:00 - 8:30 Registration & Coffee
- 8:30 - 8:40 Welcome and Opening Remarks
Susan Viegas, Toronto Financial Services Alliance (TFSA)
Ashley Prime, (Acting) Consul General, British Consulate-General Toronto
- 8:40 – 9:40 Panel Discussion: “Recent Developments in Islamic Finance –UK and Canadian perspectives.”
- Moderator
Jeffrey Graham, Partner Borden Ladner Gervais,
- Panelists
Patrick Lamb, Deputy Chief Executive, International Financial Services, London (IFSL) “Promoting and Positioning London as an Islamic Finance Centre.”
- Ruth Martin, Managing Director, Securities & Investment Institute (SII) “The importance of creating a skilled workforce to support Islamic Finance.”
- Steve Watts, Partner, KPMG Toronto, “Islamic Finance and the Canadian landscape.”
- 9:40 – 9:55 Q&A and Wrap Up, Jeff Graham, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP
- 10:30: 11:30 2 Concurrent Breakout Sessions (optional)
- Ruth Martin: “Developing Global Education Training and Qualifications (ETQ) to support London as an Islamic Finance Centre.”
- Patrick Lamb: “Islamic Finance and its application to the existing Regulatory Framework – the UK approach.”

Please RSVP no later than Friday, March 6, 2009 to Paul at pposilo@toronto.ca - or call him directly at 416 397 4810. Kindly specify which of the optional sessions you wish to attend.